

Christopher D. "Kit" Maxwell

christopher.maxwell@colorado.edu

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Teaching Assistant Professor, University of Colorado Boulder, Boulder, Colorado – January 2019 to Present

Presently, a full-time professor at the University of Colorado Boulder having taught financial statement analysis, auditing, oil and gas accounting and accounting ethics in both the undergraduate and Master of Science Accounting programs.

Retired Audit and Advisory Partner, Deloitte & Touche LLP, Denver, Colorado - July 2002 to September 2004 and September 2005 to November 2017

After 10 years as an audit and advisory partner, retired early from international public accounting firm. Responsibilities and experiences included:

- Developing, organizing and performing audit and audit-related services provided to publicly traded and privately held clients primarily in the oil and gas, technology, hospitality, gaming and real estate industries. Oversaw in excess of $4 million in revenue and approximately 50 to 75 audit managers, seniors and staff annually for the Denver audit practice.
- Generating and selling new accounting and auditing service revenue on an annual basis to grow the practice and increase firm eminence in the Denver marketplace.
- Assisting clients with business and transaction structuring in connection with initial company formation, acquisitions, divestitures, regulatory matters and public offerings.
- Overseeing due diligence services for numerous client transactions, initial public offerings and secondary equity and debt offerings.
- Assisting with finance and accounting matters pertaining to numerous client acquisitions, divestitures and other related transactions.
- Providing internal controls consultation and compliance services consistent with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 for both public and private companies seeking to register with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission.
- Consistently instructing firm staff, seniors and managers in both United States generally accepted accounting principles and proprietary auditing coursework.
- Developing and building the Denver campus recruiting program. Responsible for hiring approximately 50 full-time staff and interns to the practice annually.
- Creating and developing the Denver practice summer leadership program for college juniors to serve as an introduction to the public accounting profession and a pipeline for future firm hiring efforts.
- Regularly speaking on campus and in university classrooms on a variety of recruiting and accounting related topics.
- Leading the firm's charitable giving efforts for all local universities.
- Spearheading donation efforts to raise $125k for Deloitte classroom naming rights at Colorado State University.
- Creating and funding the Deloitte Faculty Fellowship, the first endowed faculty fellowship fund for the Colorado State University Department of Accounting.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE (continued)

- Overseeing the Denver practice experienced personnel hiring, personnel transfer process and a variety of career counseling initiatives for firm employees.

Corporate Controller, Affordable Residential Communities, Inc., Denver, Colorado - September 2004 to April 2005

Responsibilities included managing the corporate accounting, treasury, financial reporting and financial planning and analysis functions of a 300+ community publicly traded real estate investment trust. Responsibilities also included writing and filing all public Securities and Exchange Commission documents, preparing analyst guidance and press releases, forecasting and budgeting, and responding to analyst inquiries.

Audit Manager, Arthur Andersen LLP, Denver, Colorado - August 1993 to June 2002

Responsibilities included organizing, supervising and managing audit and audit-related services provided to approximately 10 clients annually. Position required maintaining strong personal and professional relationships with various levels of client personnel. Clients ranged from multi-national, publicly held companies to local start-up companies in the development stage. Experience included regularly writing financial statements for both publicly held and privately-owned clients and supervising services provided in connection with stock and debt offerings.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science in Business Administration degree, emphasis in Accounting
Colorado State University, Fort Collins, Colorado
Graduated Magna Cum Laude, May 1993

OTHER PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE AND ACCREDITATIONS

- Professor/Instructor in the Colorado State University Master of Accountancy Program, teaching oil and gas accounting. August 2016 to May 2023
- Professor/Instructor at the University of Denver, Daniels College of Business, teaching undergraduate, Master of Accountancy and Professional MBA Program audit and financial accounting courses. September 2017 to June 2020
- Professor/Instructor in the University of Northern Colorado Master of Accountancy Program, teaching oil and gas accounting. August 2018 to December 2020
- Certified Public Accountant since June 1994
- Member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
- Past Director, Treasurer, and Executive Committee member for Advocates for Children – Served the organization in these roles for a total of 7 years
- Colorado State University Accounting Department Advisory Board Co-Chair